ABOUT ME

I'm Vahab Hasiri, founder of Consilium Dynamics and a former COO who's scaled Fintech, SaaS, and Service companies through disciplined strategy and operations.

My work is simple: turn complexity into clear plans, build processes people actually use, and help you to create systems that work without you. Along the way, I've helped leadership teams hit revenue growth year over year, while keeping their bottom line low.

If you're done with vague frameworks and 100-slide decks, I'll roll up my sleeves with you, diagnosing the real bottlenecks, designing lean systems, and coaching your team until the results stick.
